

Centre Ornithologique de Réadaptation

A detailed illustration of a barred owl perched on a weathered tree stump. The owl has dark brown and white mottled feathers and large, bright yellow eyes. It is looking towards the left. In the background, there is a field with a wire fence supported by wooden posts. The scene is rendered in a soft, stippled style with a muted color palette of greens, browns, and greys.

UN RAPACE

BLESSÉ OU MALADE ?

Appellez-nous : 079.624.33.07.

www.cor-ge.ch